AN ATTACK ON ACT OF 1899

IT IS ALLEGED TO RUN COUN-TER TO THE BILL OF RIGHTS.

When Junk Dealers Were Arraigned Yesterday for Buying from Minors Their Attorneys, O'Brien and Martin, Asked That the Indictment Be Quashed, for the Reason That the Act Is in Restraint of Trade. Mike Kosh Is Found Not Guilty. Other Cases Heard.

When M. Rossinger, Louis Peskovich, Isaac Leber and Ira Leber were arraigned before Judge Newcomb in No. 2 yesterday, charged with buying iron from minors, their attorneys, O'Brien & Martin, asked that the indictment be quashed for somewhat novel reasons. It was asked that the indictment be quashed because, i. The indictment does not charge any criminal offense known to the law.

The act of 5 May, 1899, P. L. 247, under which the indictment is drawn, is unconstitutional and yold:

(a) Because it is an act in restraint o (b) Because it denies to persons su juris the right to make contracts for the acquisition, sale and protection of

(d) Because it is in violation of the bill of rights of the Constitution of the United States and of the state of Penn-2. The indictment does not charge any violation of the act of 5 May, 1899, P. L.

t. The indictment does not charge any criminal offense at common law.

Judge Newcomb granted a rule to show cause why the indictment should not be quashed and made it returnable

The act which it is alleged offends against the constitution and the bill of rights was passed to prevent junk dealers from encouraging boys to steal for them, as many of them throughout the state have for years been engaged in doing by buying stolen goods from them. The act follows:

THE ACT IN QUESTION.

Section 1. Be it enacted, etc. That if any person or persons shall, after the passage of this act, buy or receive from minors, knowing them to be such, or from persons unknown to such person or persons so buying or receiving, or from per-sons pursuing no trade, labor or employ-ment for a livelihood, any junk, rope, scrap, iron, brass, lead, copper or other metals, such person or persons shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and, on conviction thereof in a court of quarter session of the proper county, shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not exceeding five hundred dollars ($500) or to undergo an imprisonment of not more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the

Approved—The 5th day of May, A. D. William A. Stone. The defendants live at Archbald, where they are engaged in the junk business. Detective Martin Crippen, of the Delaware and Hudson company, is the prosecutor. That company believes that the defendants have been buying large quantities of iron stolen from the company by boys.

A case consequent upon the trolley strike is being heard by Judge McClure. P. M. Messett, an officer of the Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employes, Division 168, is the prose-The defendants are John C and Michael Metzheiser, brothers, who worked during the strike and continued to work after the strike.

According to the story of the prose cution, the defendants and some others of the non-union men committed a vicious and wholly unprovoked assault on

At 12,50 o'clock on the morning of June 12. Messett and his motorman, John O'Donnell, were housing their ear at the Providence road barn. John Metzheiser encountered Messett and asked why he had called him (Metzheiser) a "scab." Messett replied that he had not done so. Metzheiser called leave for the central city on their way home, and, when about seventy-five feet away from the barn, were set upon by Michael Metzheiser and seven or eight other non-unionists, O'Donnell was felled by a club, and when he was disposed of, the crowd, reinforced by John Metzheiser, proceeded to "do" Messett.

The latter retreated towards the barn, but had gone only fifty feet or so when he was overtaken, overpowered and given a sound drubbing. Michael Metzheiser, so Messett claims, hit him on the head with a club and others of the including John Metzheiser, struck him with their fists and kicked him, injuring him in the ribs.

He was taken to the office of Dr. John O'Malley for treatment, and later to his home, where he was confined to bed for four or five days. It was several weeks before he was able to resume work, Dr. O'Malley was the only witness examined. He testified that the blow dealt Messett on the head was, apparently, sufficient to fracture the skull if it had struck on some other part of the head. Court adjourned after Dr. O'Malley had been heard. Assistant District Attorney Gramer, Hon, John P. Quinnan and Clarence Balentine appeared for the prosecution. The defense was represented by O'Brien

KOSH NOT GUILTY.

Mike Kosh was yesterday acquitted of having placed obstruction on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western railroad on November 20 of last year. The commonwealth's case rested entirely on the testimony of Frank Jones, as related in yesterday's issue, and to contradict this the men who were with Kosh on that day testified that nothing of the kind described by Jones occurred and that they did not see Jones at all on that day. There was also testimony that Jones could not have seen Kosh the next day, as he testified, for the reason that It was St. Michael's day, on the calendar of the Greek church, and that Kosh did not go to work.

Superintendent of the Bureau of Fires H. F. Ferber swore that Jones is an Thomas Kane was acquitted of attempting to burgiarize the home of Martin Finlon, in Carbondale, one evening last June. It appeared that the defendant, while intoxicated, attempted to enter the prosecutor's house through t bedroom window. The noise he made attracted the attention of the inmates, who entered the room and found the defendant trying to enter. The defendant stated that he intended to enter the house of a relative, who lived next door, to sleep, and that he might not disturb the occupants used the window, as he had done on previous occasions On account of his drunken condition he got into the wrong house. Joseph Zima and Stanley Novakosk! were convicted of aggravated assault and battery upon Frank Sipple, and sentenced by Judge Newcomb to one year and six months each in the penitentiary at hard labor and separate and solitary confinement.

A verdict of not guilty, and the prosecutor to pay the costs, was taken in the case against Lottle Smith. The prosecutor failed to appear, and from statements of counsel it appeared that the ease had been settled out of court.

Hannah Youngs and Libbie Youngs. mother and daughter, were tried before Judge Newcomb, on the charge of keeping a disorderly house in the suburbs of Carbondale, during the past summer. Neighbors testified as to the bad character both of the house and of the defendants. They also stated that the defendants' house was, nightly, frequented by a number of men and that drunken carousals were carried on repeatedly. The defendants denied absolutely that they kept anything other than a most orderly and respectable house.

Judge Newcomb, in charging the jury, took from their consideration the charge against the daughter, on the ground that she was not responsible for what occurred in the house of her duress. L. P. Wedeman and J. J. Manning represented the defendants. Assistant District Attorney Thomas conducted the prosecution.

Peter Gahovitch was tried before Judge Kelly for stealing $81 from Mrs. Mary Novachilchaka, with whom he boarded at Taylor. He denied the charge. The jury was out at adjourn-

Wall Street Review.

New York, Oet, 14.—The over-night developments in the coal strike situation aroused a cheerful sentiment in Wall street today and the opinion was expressed that the matters at issue were in a fair way of adjustment. The monetary situation was momentarily lost sight of in the opininstic feeling that prevailed at the opening, and stocks were eagerly bought at advances of from 1 to 4 points over yesterday's final prices. Recent speculative favorites in which the pool liquidation had been heaviest were most in demand, especially the Coalers and transcontinental stocks. Individual orders for blocks of from 1,000 to 4,000 shares were taken at advancing prices and trading was in enormous volume throughout. The readiness with which prices responded to the good news cembined with the appearance of London as a heavy buyer encouraged the bull interests to renewed efforts in driving the short interest to ever. The linquiry embraced all classes of stocks but the largest advances were centered in the highest priced class. Some comment was aroused over the fact that the active coalers did not advance proportionately more than other stocks although the demand for them was heavier than at other points. Early prices showed such a handsome profit to the traders who bought early yesterday in the semi-demoralized market that they commenced to unload quickly. Commission houses were well represented in the early demand but the volume of realizing sales some exhausted their orders and prices relapsed all around. Before noon the opening substantial advances had been pretty generally reduced to a fraction and even cancelled in some important stocks. The downward movement of prices was accelerated by a 12 per cent call money rate which recalled to mind the fact that the monetary situation had to be reckoned with in an effort to create a built myrket. Dealings then subsided into call money rate which recalled to mind the fact that the monetary situation had to be reckoned with in an effort to create a bull market. Dealings then subsided into merely nominal proportions for a long time, but there was a steadily increasing undercurrent of strength which culminated in a violent buying movement again in the closing hour which carried the entire market to the best prices of the day. Prominent leaders such as St. Paul, the Pacifics. Reading, Pennsylvania, Atchison, Sugar and Amalgamated Copper were bought heavily and there was a large absorption of various miner stocks. The rally in prices was stimulated by a break in money rates from 12 per cent. the rally in prices was stimulated by a break in money rates from 12 per cent. the highest in the forenom, to 5 per cent. The action of the coal operators in agreeing to submit the questions at issue with the miners to a board of arbitration to be named by President Roosevelt was freely discussed during the day, and all news bearing on the subject was absorbed with keenest interest. It is expected that the resumption of mining operations will necessitate the forwarding of considerable money to the anthracite regions. In the final dealings the stock market commenced to feel the weight of the traders
